The grievance of the petitioner in this writ petition is that the respondents have not regularized his services till date. The petitioner had submitted several representations to the respondents praying for regularization of his services. He had also filed a representation on 30-12-1997 to the first respondent and a representation to Hon'ble Chief Minister on 18-8-2003 to regularize his services. Since those representations have not yet been considered, the petitioner has approached this court requesting to direct the respondents to consider his representations for regularization of his services.
